With the 1st August date planned for a club Xmas in July/August falling through (Santa couldn't find a crowd to attend), a night out at the Grand Hotel Warrandyte was arranged at short notice. In all, 14 members attended with apologies from 6 others also received. The night was wet & cold and so a good meal inside was the smart call.

As it turned out it seemed the older members were looking for any excuse to get together and gossip for a few hours.

All enjoyed good food and good company with seats being swapped as well as yarns of recent holidays and future adventures. As the meals were of good portion deserts were forgone by most, but some just had to have that little (!) extra.

Thanks to all who attended and hope to see you all at the Barjarg Weekend coming up later this month.
