Any body I missed

Burkies Sidebottom's and Craig arrived Friday night, a lovely night looking at the Lightening, during the night the thunder and lightening put on a decent display.

We met with the rest in Wonthaggi and spent lunchtime shopping there was some good bargains I was told.

The rest of the afternoon was spent lazing around camp or fishing or walking along the beach.

We started the beach clean up on Sunday morning and within 3 hours we had cleaned the beach from the ocean outfall to the rocks the trailer was again filled to the brim.

As the weather improved we played tourist and went to Cape Liptrap and Walkerville.

At Walkerville we sat watching the sea roll in listening to Rod tell us how much weight he had lost as he polished off not one but 3 Ice Creams and a bag of Chips.

Cleaned up the following day and went in to Walkerville to check out the Local Markets.

A good weekend was had by all.
